September, 2019 Newsletter

Dear Members and Friends of Union Church,

Greetings in the name of the One who gives us
"Grace Aplenty"!

What a joy it was for me to celebrate my August 11th birthday together with you in our worship services that day! I was surely blessed by your greetings, cards, gifts, and donations to UMEM during our "Joys and Celebrations" time. Thank you so much!

Last month in this space, I shared that it seems to me the "word" God has placed before me in this season of my life's journey is "mindful."
This month, I elaborate with these words from Henri Nouwen, one of my favorite spiritual writers: "Patience...is not just waiting until something happens over which we have no control: the arrival of the bus, the end of the rain, the return of a friend, the resolution of a conflict. Patience is not a waiting passivity until someone does something. Patience asks us to live the moment to the fullest, to be completely present to the moment, to taste the here and now, to be where we are." Being patient requires us to be mindful. The two go hand-in-hand, it would seem.

These thoughts are important in this time of transition. They are essential to me as I am learning about all of you, and the mission and ministries of this church. They are essential to us together as we are prayerfully considering how to be God's best possible stewards of all with which God has blessed us. I hope our focus on stewardship and "Grace Aplenty in 2020" in the month of August was helpful to you, in your spiritual journeys. I am grateful for Pam, Darryl, and Kevin for sharing what this church, this faith community, means to each of them. And I am grateful for our Finance Committee and its leader, Tony Mastromarino.

I am in the process of visiting the various groups and agencies we walk alongside in our efforts to be good neighbors, in an effort to be mindful of the good things that are currently underway, and to be mindful of the more/next good things we can be doing.

Patience – mindfulness – is something I must consciously cultivate. And so I am convicted by these words Henri Nouwen shared about impatience: “When we are impatient we try to get away from where we are. We behave as if the real thing will happen tomorrow, later, and somewhere else. Let’s be patient and trust that the treasure we look for is hidden in the ground on which we stand.” Yes! Let’s be patient and trust that the treasure we look for is hidden right in the ground on which we stand. Amen!

Together in Christ’s Love and Service,
Pastor Eleanor Collinsworth

How to Starve Your Fear and Feed Your Faith

By Chip Ingram

What is the greatest fear you’re facing right now?

What gets your stomach in knots? When you’re driving in your car and everything is quiet and your mind drifts, what makes your heart rate increase and you suddenly realize you’re afraid?

For some of us, it’s the fear of losing our health or losing our job. For others, it’s the fear of never getting married, or the fear that our marriage won’t get any better. Or maybe it’s the fear that one of our kids or grandkids will get into a car accident.

It’s significant to note that the most common command God gives to His people in the Old and New Testament is, “Fear not.” and “Be not afraid.” This command is usually followed by the declaration, “For I am with you.”

God doesn’t want us to be afraid, despite our circumstances.

So, how do we experience His power and calming presence in the midst of life’s fear-inducing storms?

In order to discover this, we need to understand how God has made and wired our mind and our emotions, and how they work together.

What we allow in our minds either creates or feeds our fears.

Despite living in a world that was filled with such uncertainty, violence, and injustice, the Apostle Paul was able to experience the peace of God. Then He instructed the church in Philippi how they could have peace in the midst of their fears, too. He said,

“Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything is worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things. (Philippians 4:8)

In other words, what we put into our minds matters!

Some of us are feeding our fears instead of starving them. Instead, we need to be starving our fears and feeding our faith.

We are what we eat psychologically. Here’s where science and Scripture are in alignment.

We are the product of our thought life.

Who we are today is the product of our past thinking of what we thought was true, our focus, and our decisions. Proverbs 23:7 says,

“for as he thinks within himself, so he is...”

What we allow into our minds is the most important decision we make each and every day.

What we think about, what we watch, what we listen to – it all matters. Even the conversations we have with others. What we allow into our eyes and ears that seeps down into our soul is the most important decision we'll ever make each and every day.

Our emotions flow from our thoughts.

Most of us make lots of decisions based on our emotions. But our emotions follow our thoughts. In a book called "The 4:8 Principle" by Tommy Newberry, he lists some things that we tend to unconsciously tell ourselves that produce negative emotions like anxiety, hopelessness, and fear.

We tell ourselves things like: "I'll never be happy again. This probably won't work... If I had more money it wouldn't matter, I would just probably worry about it... I don't have what it takes... This always happens to me... I'm not worthy... I'm just not very creative... I have to just accept my limitations... I never say the right thing." And on and on...

Instead, we need to declare what's true.

We should be telling ourselves things like: "I am the son/daughter of the Living God. I have an inheritance from Him. God has already reserved a place for me in heaven. He has deposited spiritual gifts in my life. I have His peace living in my heart. He has blessed me with this, this, and this..."

Want to overcome your fear? Then, let's focus on what is true.

Mid-Maine District Learning Events

There are two excellent learning opportunities coming up in September and October right here in our Mid-Maine District:

Saturday, September 13: “Vital Conversations: Racism and the U.S. Church” This is the first in a series of training events for clergy and church leaders (laypeople) on how to have vital conversations about race and racism with their congregations. It will be held from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. at Brunswick UMC.

Saturday, October 19: “Neighborhood Seminary” This training event supports commitment to knowing the neighbors you seek to know and love while growing as a disciple of Jesus Christ. We will explore what this back-to-basics movement might look like in our district and local churches. Location and schedule for the day are to-be-determined.

Please see Pastor Eleanor if you are interested in either of these or would like more information. We will plan to carpool to both events.

Back-to-School Blessing

Learning is a gift from God.

As we begin this new school year, we give thanks that God has given us the ability to learn many things in many ways.

Loving God, sometimes a new school year seems exciting or scary or both.

Help us remember to show our thanks for your gifts of learning by doing our best every day.

We ask that you bless our schools, teachers, classmates and friends.

We ask that you bless those who prepare our lunches, those who drive us to school, and those who keep our schools clean and safe.

We ask God's blessing on this new school year, that it may be a time when we appreciate and fully use God's gift of learning.

Amen.

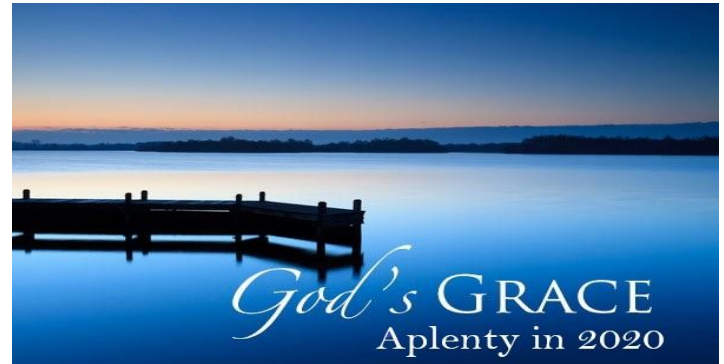

Prayer for The Month

Scripture: Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus...
Philippians 2:5

O Lord, how often we listen to the news and we just don't know what to think. We are shocked, confused, and sometimes terrified by the things that are going on in the world around us. Yet our first response should be, "What do you think, Lord?" Please give us your insights on the events of today, as we know nothing catches you by surprise. Teach us to discern as you do, and help us see how we can contribute to change things for the better.

God's Grace Aplenty in 2020

This is the theme your Finance Committee has selected, looking forward to a new giving year that will begin in January, 2020. You have now received a letter inviting you to be part of this Stewardship Program, as we celebrate the many ways God's grace abounds in our faith community here at Union Church of Belgrade Lakes UMC. In our worship services in the month of August, we will explore stewardship as a vital part of our spiritual life through the words of Jesus and the apostle Paul, and through the testimonies of a few of our siblings in Christ here at Union Church. We are grateful for Pam MacKill, Darryl Day and Kevin Webb for speaking from their hearts about what Union Church and Stewardship means to them. The program culminated in Covenant Sunday on August 25. If you haven't already turned in your pledge, please prayerfully consider doing so. May God richly bless our efforts to be good stewards of all God has entrusted to us!

FESTIVAL
2019

Summer has flown by and now it is that time of year again when plans are getting underway for Union Church's annual Harvest Festival. It is the big draw in town; many folks have already asked about our event and are looking forward to attending again this year!

Octoberfest is on October 12, 2019 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Be thinking about ways you can help out - many hands needed! Lots of volunteers needed to make this a success again this year. Hoping that each and every one of you will come join us in the fun and fellowship as we share in our preparations. It is a great way to connect with old friends, meet new friends and get incorporated into the life of the church and community.

A few of us met on Sunday, August 18th and came up with the below info and some new thoughts:

Autumn Café – We are looking for 2 Crockpots Each of Soup (Beef Barley; Butternut Squash and Apple and Split Ham and Pea); there will also be corn chowder (volunteer all signed up).

Yard Sale – As you clean out your summer places or are doing Fall Cleaning; we welcome you to share items you no longer want.

Craft Table – If you have any crafts you would like to share, please feel free to bring them to this event.

Reminder: Bobbi's Craft Day is Saturday, September 28th at her house.

Bake Shop – We are grateful for any and all donations 😊. We have observed that the small breads (pumpkin, apple, spice, etc.) go very well. And smaller cakes and pies. Also, cookies other than chocolate chip (most everyone makes them); Folks are looking for your grandma's favorite recipe cookies.

Harvest Kitchen – Looking for items for the freezer (soups of all kinds that we will provide containers for). Dinners (shepherd's pie, lasagna, etc. and desserts such as apple crisp) 8x8 alum pans will be provided for your use. Canned goods, jams and jellies.

Second Time Around (Christmas Decorations) – We are looking for more of these items if you have any you would like to donate.

Jewelry Table – We have more than enough; thank you 😊

Silent Auction – Carol welcomes any donations you would like to provide. And you can even donate holding a dinner party, boat cruise, plane rides, etc.).

Brats and Hot Dogs – We need a few volunteers to cook and serve these during the day.

It truly is a very fun day and you get to work with your Church Family and meet all the town folk that come take part in this special event.

In the meantime; save the date, start canning, crafting, woodworking, picking out your recipes for baked goods and items for our freezer (soups, entrees, etc.). If you know any shopkeepers; see if they would be willing to donate something to our Silent Auction. Or check with family and friends to see if they would donate a dinner, boat ride, etc. Look for "really good" things in your attic or basement that you can donate to the auction, or make something using your special talents. Please contact Kathy Gerard (Chair) at kakoala5@gmail.com or Carol Johnson at caroljohnson@allstate.com (Chair of Silent Auction) if you have any comments/questions/ideas and would like to step up and volunteer.

Please sign up on the Sign-Up Sheet in Friendship Hall 😊

Thank you and God Bless!

See You Next Summer;
Stay in Touch Over the Winter Months

It is so hard to believe that some of our Summer Folks have headed back to their Winter Homes. We have so enjoyed our fellowship time with you over the summer. We pray that your travels are safe and will keep you and your families in our prayers over the Winter. We will keep in touch through our emails/calls and Newsletters. Please call or contact us if you would like any prayer request during our Worship Services. We look forward to seeing you again in June.
